

Please ask me if I would like to spell a message, be asked a yes/no question or say a quick phrase. For spelling, follow along as I point to a letter. If I cannot point myself, slowly point to and say A, E, I, O, U. When I indicate* my desired letter is in the row, point to each letter in that row until I indicate* my desired letter. If I want to say a phrase, point to and say 1-6 until I get to my desired phrase.

*Using an eye blink is often the most reliable way for a person to signal their partner; however, other movements may be used so long as the partner knows which response to watch for while communicating with the individual (i.e. looking up, smiling, or tapping a finger).
